In the Washington Post, Anne-Marie Slaughter, a Princeton professor and former State Department official under Obama, wrote, "Standing by while Assad gasses his people will guarantee that, whatever else Obama may achieve, he will be remembered as a President who proclaimed a new beginning with the Muslim world but presided over a deadly chapter in the same old story." If he did not intervene, she added, "The world would see Syrian civilians rolling on the ground, foaming at the mouth, dying by the thousands while the United States stands by."
